Special thanks to all of our parents who were able to attend the volunteer celebration on Friday, April 29th. We look forward to your continued support next year.

SEABORN LEE CAREER DAY 2005

On Friday, April 29, 2005 from 9:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m., The Counseling Center of Seaborn Lee hosted Career Day. Career Day is an academically motivating activity designed to give students an up-close look at the world of work and to create awareness about the endless career opportunities available for today's youth.

Community volunteers from all types of occupations and professions have committed their time and talents to come out and speak to students about their careers. The students will learn first hand how the skills learned in school relate to the everyday workplace. According to Aliza Dorsey, coordinator of Career Day, this activity is designed to enlighten our future generation with the array of career options that are available.

We would like to give a special thanks to the following participants:

1. Dr. Drew Kohlhorst – GSU Scientist
