

Preparing Tractor-Trailer Cases for Trial

Seminar Chair:
S. Bradley Houck

September 23, 2004
GTLA Headquarters, Atlanta

6.0 Total CLE, Including 3.0 Trial

This seminar is a must for anyone who is currently working with tractor trailer cases or who would like to start handling them. You will learn practical pointers in handling tractor-trailer cases with a view of going to trial from experienced lawyers eager to share their wisdom.

-Overview of Motor Carriers: Understanding the Basics Tractor Trailer Agenda – Sept 23 Michael Goldberg, Esq., Atlanta

-Potential Defendants & Insurance
Jason Schultz, Esq., Atlanta

-Defending the Tractor-Trailer Case
Grant Smith, Esq., Dennis, Corry, Porter & Smith, LLP.

-Which Motor Carrier Safety Regulations Apply and How to Prove them at Trial
Joel Grist, Esq., Grist & Brock, LLP, Atlanta

-Discovery: What Documents to Request and Where to Get Them
Lance Cooper, Esq., Cooper, Jones & Cooper, LLP, Marietta

-Handling the Jury in a Tractor-Trailer Case – Voir Dire and the Charge Conference
Richard Griggs, Esq., Conley Griggs, LLP

-Opening Statement of a Tractor-Trailer Case
Pete Law, Esq., Peter A. Law, P.C., Atlanta

-Arguing Damages in a Tractor-Trailer Case
Joe Fried, Esq., Henry, Spiegel, Fried & Milling, LLP, Atlanta

- Trucking Standards for Hiring and Retaining Drivers/ How to Prove Log Book Violations
Bob Smedburg

-Proving Punitive Damages in a Tractor-Trailer Case
Eric Hertz, Esq., Hertz, Link & Smith, PC, Tucker

Register 